

DANVILLE.

—Rowland & Thiele, merchant tailors, have dissolved, Mr. Thiele remaining in the business.

—Miss Kate Shropshire, of Illinois, is visiting Mrs. Josie Evans and may remain during the summer.

—Mrs. Fannie E. Meyer sold out her household goods, etc., Saturday, the 2d inst. She expects to remove to Texas, where she has a married daughter living.

—A young colored boy giving the name of John Green was arrested Saturday evening, charged with stealing a small amount of money from the residence of Felix Fisher.

Fox, of the Democrat, and his cousins, Mrs. Mary McCune and Miss Mary McRoberts, were at Linnetta Springs Friday night, and as they were leaving the 20-year-old colt they were driving took a notion to run away and did run a short distance, and far enough to upset the barouche and badly smash it, all the occupants being covered with the wreck. Fortunately neither of the ladies, nor Mr. Fox, was injured, beyond a few scratches.

—Julia Kemper is a deaf mute 18 years old and of the incorrigible class. Mr. Argo, of the Institute, tried to instruct her in habits of usefulness and to educate her, but had to send her away, as she would submit to no discipline. Thursday evening she struck a young lady with whose mother she had been for a few days, and for it was locked up by Chief of Police Silliman. She was released Friday morning upon the promise of her aunt to send her to her father, who lives at Eaton, O.

—Thursday evening lightning struck a steeple in the boy's building in the north end of the D. and H. Asylum grounds. The damage was not serious. At the same time a hollow locust tree in the lot adjoining R. P. Jacobs' residence was stricken and set on fire. It continued to burn until a late hour in the night, when it fell. At twilight and for some time after dark it was an object of considerable interest to the small boys, white and black, some of whom contended that fire started by lightning could not be quenched by water. One scientist carried a bucket of water from a spring 100 yards distant and threw it on the burning tree "just to see if he was right."

SIX PAGES.

On Fridays.

To the surprise of even the most ardent silver man, a vote was reached in the Senate Friday evening on the Stewart silver bill and it was passed 29 to 25. It provides for the free and unlimited coinage at American mints into standard dollars of the United States of all the domestic and foreign silver bullion or coin that may be presented for coinage, including all the bullion in the treasury purchased with silver or coin certificates, and makes all the silver so coined a legal tender for all debts and dues, public and private. Senator Hill, who used to dodge the silver question, voted very boldly for the bill. Blackburn also voted for and Carlisle represented his constituency by voting against it. Eleven republicans and 18 democrats voted yea, showing that it is not regarded a party measure. On hearing the news, Bland, who was at home fixing his fences for re-election, hurried back to Washington, determined to push the bill through the House. It is thought, however, that it will not reach a vote this session.

The prohibitionists nominated, as was predicted, Gen. John Bidwell, of California, for president. The result was reached on the first ballot, the vote standing 500 for him, Demorest 120 and Stewart 179. A half-dozen or more were placed in nomination for vice-president, including Sam Small, and J. B. Cranfill, of Texas, was chosen. It was past 2 A. M., Friday, when the convention adjourned after as noisy and lively a session as was ever witnessed in a sure enough party. The proposition to fuse with any other organization was defeated by a large vote and a lively fight was made on the plank in the platform declaring for free coinage of silver which it was finally rejected. The delegates lost a good deal of time and much sleep to little purpose, but most of them are earnest and honest men, who believe that the only hope of the country is in the prohibition party.

EX-SENATOR FARWELL, of Illinois, recalls the fact that when he and other republicans recommended Wm. J. Campbell, who was made chairman of the National Republican Committee by request of Mr. Harrison, for Collector of Customs at Chicago, the president said that he was a professional lobbyist and unfit for the position. There is nothing wrong about that. A man may be unfit to be collector and yet be a horse in elections. Some of our biggest rascals are our best electioneers. They know exactly when and where to put the boodle.

The announcement was made Friday that the State treasury was empty and that the payment of claims had ceased. The legislators, who are responsible for the deficit, made a raid on the treasury when they heard it was coming and most of them got out all that was due them. The foolish action of the legislature of '89 and '90, in reducing taxation 5 cents on the $100, with the expenses of the con. and the present legislature, which seems likely to go on forever, causes the credit of a rich State to be thus jeopardized.

ALEXANDER Lusk was placed on the committee of permanent organization in the national convention of the prohibition party, at Cincinnati, last week. This is an advantage that comes of a multiplicity of parties. It gives us smaller men a chance to appear large, for some of us are so constructed that we would rather be a big man in a small concern than a little man in a larger, and but few of us prefer to be doorkeepers in the house of the Lord to dwelling in the big tents.

HON. HARVEY H. SMITH has withdrawn from his alleged race for Congress in the 4th district, leaving Mr. Montgomery a walk over, as he would have almost had with Mr. Smith on the track. It is not gratifying to Kentucky pride to see a man of such mediocre ability as Montgomery permitted to continue to represent a district without opposition, that has had such men as Hon. J. Proctor Knott give it prestige in National legislative halls.

The people's party, in Convention at Omaha, are having a hard time finding a candidate for president. Judge Graham positively refuses to accept the nomination and a boom is now on for Senator Kyle, of South Dakota. Nobody seems to want the doubtful honor of carrying such a flag as will be put in the leader's hand.

Would it be asking too much of the Frankfort Capital and the Newport Journal, which are running the tariff plank of the democratic platform at their mast heads, so to speak, to change the word labor to robbery? It would not only be correct but sound better besides.

The inveterate punster of the Hopkinsville Kentuckian prints this one: "The prohibitionists probably think that while bidding for votes it is well enough to bid well."

COL. W. O. BRADLEY, who returned from Washington, Sunday, told a Courier-Journal reporter that the presidential campaign will be pitched on a high plane and will be one of education and ideas. He was kind enough to admit that Cleveland is a good and clear man, broad minded and honest. The fight will be on the tariff. Silver and third parties won't cut any figure, he thinks, and neither will carry a State. The colonel tries to explain that the force bill is not a force bill, but he had best let that matter drop.

During the fiscal year just closed 305,762 pension certificates of all classes were issued, 35,000 more than the year before, making in all $50,000 pensioners, who draw the magnificent sum of $13,000,000 a month. As a large part of these pensioners are men who never smelled gunpowder or did anything to entitle them to the bounty of the government, it is about time a halt was called in this robbery of the treasury. Grover Cleveland is the only man in the U. S. who has the backbone to stem the terrific tide that promises to sweep the country into bankruptcy.

AFTER thinking the matter over President Harrison has concluded that he cannot afford to be at outs with Bosses Clarkson, Quay, Dudley and others and he has run up the flag of truce and asked for terms from them. Benjamin will do anything to succeed himself, even to accept again the services of Blocks of Five Dudley, whom he snubbed, after his method of campaigning had put him into the White House.

The prohibitionists declared anew for the entire suppression of the manufacture, sale, importation, exportation and transportation of alcoholic liquors as a beverage by Federal and State legislation. If this could be done we would give the cause our most unqualified support, but in the very nature of things it can not be. They also declare for equal rights to women as to suffrage and equal pay as to services.

The president believes in reciprocity. He has appointed the negro delegate, who was converted by cold cash and promises to a Harrison enthusiast at Minneapolis, to be postmaster at Charleston, S. C. With that kind of argument, of course the planned knight had no show for the nomination.

The Knox county people gave a big picnic yesterday, at which Gen. P. W. Harlin and M. D. Hardin, Esq., were the principal orators. It goes without saying that eloquence was largely on tap and that the two got in a few words for Cleve and Steve.

The astronomers state that on the night of Aug 5th next the planet Mars will reduce the distance between us and him from 141,000,000 to 35,000,000 miles. As this is still quite a step the nervous need have no fears of a collision.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

A bill to close barbers shops on Sundays has been favorably reported to the House.

The Senate voted to abolish the board of equalization and the House will tackle the question to day.

The governor has signed the election bill and 20,000 copies of it have been printed and distributed. It is a very voluminous and intricate enactment.

Among the bills passed by the Senate was one declaring railroads liable for damages for injury to their employees when the injury is caused through negligence of fellow employees.

On the heels of the announcement that the treasury is empty, Mr. Edmiston presented a resolution for an adjournment of the body from July 20 to Oct. 5, to give it a chance to recoup, we suppose.

NEWSY NOTES.

Prohibition was defeated at Augusta, Ga., by 1,400 in a poll of 4,000.

The Dow Wire Works at Louisville were destroyed by fire; loss $50,000.

The Kentucky Union has bought the Lexington Belt Line for $235,000.

Mrs. W. F. Stair, of Middleboro, shot Miss McGuire, who had led her husband from her.

George Sheppard, of Somerset, was killed in the yards of the Q. & C. there by a switch engine.

Near Keller's Station, Ind., five men were killed in a wreck on the Wabash railroad, caused by a washout.

The Kings county, N. Y., democrats held an enthusiastic Cleveland and Stevenson ratification meeting.

The Pulaski democrats ratified the nomination of Cleve and Steve in an enthusiastic meeting at Somerset.

At Haynes, Ark., a negro named Donnelly was lynched by a mob of 300 blacks for outraging a negro girl.

The republicans of Kansas nominated Farmer A. W. Smith for governor and a negro named Bruce for auditor.

The deficit in the National Savings Bank of Buffalo, N. Y., it is said, is at most certain to be $50,000, if not more.

The Senate Committee struck out the clause of the revenue and taxation bill fixing the license for selling cigars at $300.

Secretary Whitney positively declines to accept the chairmanship of the democratic national committee, the more the pity.

At Owenson, Col., William Lindsay seriously cut Capt. C. Alexander in a quarrel about some money collections. Lindsay was a delegate to Chicago.

—Fire at San Jose, Cal., Saturday evening destroyed $500,000 worth of business and residence property.

—Bethlehem, Pa., was struck by a cyclone and property damaged to the extent of $150,000. Crops near the city are almost a total loss.

—At a picnic near Petersburg, George Black shot and killed John Stacey while the latter was dancing. An old grudge was the cause of the tragedy.

—Joe Shively, the negro track walker on the L. & N. at Lebanon, went to sleep on the track and a train came along and crushed his skull and broke his arm.

—Gen. George D. Johnson, of Louisiana, has been appointed Civil Service Commissioner, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of ex-Gov. Hugh S. Thompson.

—Maj. Tilman, who robbed the Falls City Bank, Louisville, depositors and skipped, is again a free man. He has made partial restitution and the indictments against him have been dismissed.

—Miss Lucy Hocker, who has held the post-office at Eminence till now under a republican administration, will have to surrender it soon to Henry S. Adams, who has been appointed to succeed her.

—The Belle of Nelson Distillery Company has declared an annual dividend of 40 per cent. This doesn't look like the prohibition party is making much progress in "pulverizing the rum power."—Louisville Times.

—The Railroad Gazette says that 1,190 miles of railroad were built in the U. S. during the last six months. This is 500 miles less than was built in the first half of 1891 and indicates a probable total for the year of less than 3,000 miles.

—Three thousand men have been discharged at Carnegie's Homestead Steel Works. The victim have invited all other employees to quit and it is expected that they will do so. The cause is the reduction in wages of 20 to 40 per cent.

—One of the latest schemes to swindle the farmer is being practiced by a shrewd gang in various parts of the State. The scheme is to sell a fine-looking, but worthless vehicle on long time, taking a note, and then rush to a bank and have the paper cashed, leaving the purchaser no recourse.

Regarding the nomination of Benjamin Harrison, the Voice, the organ of the prohibition party, goes further than any democratic paper has done when it says: "It is an endorsement of debauchery at the capital, pollution in the home, corruption in politics, lechery in society, hypocrisy in the church. And the convention that indorses these was well fitted for its work."

HUSTONVILLE.

—Quite a crowd of young men attended a picnic at Willis' mill, in Casey county, Saturday. All report a pleasant time.

—While returning from the party at the residence of Mr. J. T. Rose, the other night, the carriage containing Owen Williams, Portman Pencecock and Misses Mattie Dinwiddie and Mary Adams was overturned, throwing the occupants to the ground and demolishing the carriage. We advise Owen and Port to take Will Huffman along next time to do the driving.

—Mrs. W. P. Swope, nee Drye, of Owenton, is the guest of her father, S. G. Drye, A. J. Adams, of McKinney, Tex., and J. B. Adams, of Longview, Ala., returned home last week after a month's visit to relatives here. W. C. Greening went over to Lancaster Sunday to see his best girl. Dr. A. S. Price and W. A. Tribble, of Stanford, were here Saturday. John W. Reid was called to Paint Lick Sunday to attend the bedside of his little daughter, who is reported very sick. Misses Lena and Rosa Yowell entertained in honor of Miss Miranda Tucker, Friday night. Miss Mary Adams is visiting Miss Sue Bright at Hubbs.

The H. S. Browns, of Louisville, played the Interior Journals here yesterday morning and defeated our namesakes by a score of 5 to 3. The score stood 3 to 3 up to the last half of the 8th inning when Stucky made a couple of errors and let in two runs. The game was a very interesting one and the audience got the worth of their money. Joe Embury umpired, but the Louisvilles kicked on his decisions and a Louisville man was put in. The afternoon game had not concluded when he went to press early on account of the 4th of July, but its dollars to doughnuts the L. J.'s won it.

Refreshing Retreats.

Summer days are fast approaching and now is the time that excursionists, pleasure-seekers and sportsmen should figure out a route for their summer vacation. In doing so, the delightfully cool summer and fishing resorts located along the Wisconsin Central Lines come vividly to view, among which are Fox Lake, Ill., Lake Villa, Ill., Mukwonago, Wis., Cedar Lake, Wis., Waubesa, Wis., Beaver Dam, Wis., Ashland, Wis., Wisconsin Dells, Wis., and many others. The Wisconsin Central Lines have become the center of attraction for more pleasure seekers in the north and each visit increases the desire to again see the charming landscapes, breathe the balmy fragrance that is a part of the invigorating atmosphere, wander through the colonnades of shady pines and look the spectacle of a beautiful world. Cholera infantum has lost its terrors since the introduction of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. When that remedy is used and the "treacherous" undigested food is followed by a cure is certain. Mr. A. W. Walters, a prominent merchant at Waterbury, Ill., says: "I cured my baby of cholera infantum after several other remedies had failed. The child was so low that he seemed almost beyond the aid of human hands or of any medicine. At 2 o'clock a doctor called for Dr. M. L. Boone, Druggist and Optician, Sunford, Ky."

Yesterday was the coolest 4th of July for years. The mercury had gotten up to 65 by noon, after starting in the 50s. The several showers of Sunday and the hail storm caused the rapid drop in the temperature.

Most all the stores are having the electric light wires run into them and all should. Walton's Opera House has contracted for 50 incandescent and when the season opens there will be no cause to call for more light.

Try younger class of society people are looking forward with much pleasure to the party to be given by Misses Annie Brougham Engleman and Sue and Bessie Woods at Mr. George Engleman's tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. A number of invitations have been issued and the party promises to be a most pleasant occasion.

The Barbourville Herald is kind enough to say: "The ISTANBUL JOURNAL gave us later news about the democratic convention than did any of the city dailies. On Friday morning, 23d, it was the only paper here that gave any account of the nomination of Stevenson for vice president on the democratic ticket. Hurrah for the ISTANBUL JOURNAL."

Sam HOLLIS, who last fall shot Pete Whitley, at Crab Orchard, Saturday night added another victim to his list. At a negro festival, a short distance from town, he had some words with Gabe Fish, another negro, and it is reported that without provocation he shot him through the bowels, mortally wounding him. Hollis escaped and has not yet been arrested. He is, as his record shows, a desperately bad character.

Hubbard is determined to make his school the foremost in Kentucky and he will if he is properly sustained by those he has a right to expect it of.

Two of our good subscribers paid up last week to long in the future, Miss Rebecca J. Spoonmore to Feb. 20, 1894, and Dr. S. G. Hocker to April 20, 1894. We hope our delinquents won't cause us to break before their times are up. If they do we shall see that their money is refunded.

A CAKE WALK - The I. J.'s played ball with such a dash and vim Friday that it took the breath of the Danvilles for seven innings and then it was too late for them to win. The I. J.'s came to the bat first and were retired in one, two and three order and Danville was given a dose of the same medicine. In the second the Danvilles got in two runs on errors. One score was also made in the sixth by wild throwing. The remaining innings were seven large, healthy goose-eggs. In the sixth our boys used a lot of timber, assisted by errors, which amounted to five scores, and thinking they might need another proceeded to hammer out one more in the seventh. The Danvilles died hard, but the reputation of the I. J.'s was redeemed. They lugged once more to hear the glad shout of victory and receive from the cranks and their best girls those winning smiles as in days of yore. The features were: Two base hits, for I. J.'s, Keenan, McRoberts, singles, Arthur B. Stucky 3. Hits for Danvilles, Temple, Breckinridge and Jones one each. Struck out, by Holman 9, by Elting 6. Danville Advocate please copy.

Those who went to Turnersville Thursday evening last to witness the rendition of "Lady of Lyons" by the Home Literary and Dramatic Club, were well repaid in every particular. In the first place they saw a splendid performance, far beyond their expectations, and secondly they met with a warm welcome by the hospitable people of that vicinity. The programme did not mention a welcome address, but Miss Ethel Beazley recited a beautiful poem very fitting for one and after it came the rendition of the Lady of Lyons. Miss Florence Beck, representing Pauline, the victim of love and pride, took the leading lady part and acquitted herself in a most creditable manner. J. T. Hocker made a splendid Claude Melnotte, and was as much at home in that character - the gardener's son - as he was in the disguise of the "Prince of Combs." One would hardly have thought Mr. Hocker merely an amateur for he was as much at ease on the stage as he is when selling goods at his store. His was a very different part, but he went through without a bobble. Jack Beazley represented Col. Damas, an uncle of Pauline, and also did well. P. Lewis made a capital Bouscalt. Dwight Root played the dual role of Glavias and the Notary and was much applauded. Mr. J. West Bailey, as Mons. Deschappelles and Wm. Bradshaw as the Landlord, both have right to feel proud over their work. Tom Beck was good as Gasper, while Jim Beazley played the light role of Capt. Gervais to perfection. Little Miss Cynthia Beck was splendid as Widow Melnotte and Miss Dovie Talbot as Madam Deschappelles would have done credit to a professional. Miss Ethel Beazley represented Lucette, the landlord's daughter, and Marian, Pauline's maid acquitting herself creditably in both characters. Capt. Dupont, 2d officer, was well done in the person of John Carter. To make a long story short it was a first class show and was, as it should have been, well patronized. The music by Messrs H. R. Fairmond, W. R. Hill, Squire Peyton and Miss Emma Hunn was good and it added much to the pleasure of the occasion. Mrs. J. F. Gover superintended the whole business and a large portion of the credit for the capital performance is due her.

Don't fail to read the advertisement of J. S. Hughes, who seems to be pushing to the front rapidly.

The base ball boys think that M. D. Elmore is their mascot. He attended his first game Friday evening and the I. J.'s won.

Over 40 would-be teachers presented themselves Friday for examination and it took two days to get through with them. Profs. J. G. Denny and C. L. Holmes were the examiners. The colored teachers will have their inning next Friday.

ANNIE WOODS was incarcerated Saturday for carrying concealed weapons and when brought before Judge Carson he fined him $25 and gave him 10 days in jail on the testimony before him. He then employed a lawyer, demanded a jury and was acquitted, the judge having set his judgment aside on affidavit of new testimony.
